RE: "CALL FOR PAPERS" IHF JOURNAL: WORLD HOSPITALS & HEALTH SERVICES
--

Dear Colleague,

The primary publishing activities of the IHF encompass its official journal, World Hospitals and Health Services (WH&HS), first launched in 1929 as Nosokomeion, and renamed World Hospitals and Health Service. This journal is published four times a year, and includes features such as surveys, country profiles, case studies, feature articles from leading figures, academic articles focusing on practical operational matters together with advertising. It also features news of global events and IHF activities, conference diary, listings of courses and workshops and practical, academic editorials from leading international figures in the field of hospital and healthcare management. Its target audience are health service leaders, managers and other health professionals, keeping them up to date with developments and thinking across the international healthcare sector. Circulation for the journal is over 5000 in some 100 countries worldwide with an estimated readership of 20 000, the key recipients being National Hospital Associations, Ministries of Health, hospitals, universities, libraries, individuals working in or involved with the healthcare sector at managerial level, corporate companies providing healthcare/medical equipment, and hospital designers and architects.

Publishing requirements are as follows:

World Hospitals and Health Services Journal:

1. a passport-size photograph of author(s);
2. a brief autobiography (approx. 50 words);
3. a summary of the article (approx. 100 words);
4. In order to remain within our page quota for the journal, the article should not exceed 2000 words.
5. a comprehensive reference list
6. full contact details of author(s) (i.e postal and email addresses, telephone and fax numbers) to mail him/her complimentary copies of the publication

Publication dates: 31 March; 30 June; 30 September and 31 December.
