35 million

Telehealth services were delivered through the Medicaid and Children’s Health Insurance Program from March through June.

25%

Of older Americans took advantage of telehealth to consult with a care provider.

14%
in April

Telehealth consultation in the U.S. jumped from less than two-tenths of one percent before the pandemic to...
Some hospitals in Denmark reported a 5x increase in video consultations from the beginning of 2020 to April by.

Demand for services in the UK on one telehealth platform increased 100% in a single week.

In Singapore, the MyDoc telehealth platform reported a jump of 60% in Feb and 100+% in Mar.
Telehealth visits still make up more than 6% of all visits before the pandemic. But it is clear that the digital transformation is here to stay.